After an absence of a month, Joe Cantillon and his trusty crew returned to our beautiful city last evening, and this afternoon will pitch up with the champion White Sox in a double-header.

The first game will begin at 2 o'clock. This is "ladies' day," and the strife on our home sward doubtless will be witnessed by a large crowd. "Benedict" Thomas Hughes, who seems to have gotten in close proximity to the Windy City lads' Angora on the Western trip, probably will be the occupant of the mound in the first battle, while Big Bill Burns may be chosen to lob 'em up in the closing encounter of the day. Hoodoo "Doc" White and Nick Altrock look to be the logical candidates for the Chicago leadership.

Manager Cantillon said he was much gratified with the showing of his benchmen in the wild and woolly territory, and believes a winning percentage of .375 is not half bad. The second invasion of the West proved far less disastrous than the first, the team having won six games and lost ten. The Nationals took the measure of the Sox and Detroit on the latter's home grounds and have high hopes of repeating the dose in Washington. Manager Joe was especially pleased over the two victories over the Tigers. As the team has not met defeat since putting the boots on Detroit, Manager Joe believes it behooves his trusties to keep up the winning streak.

The Nationals will enter our midst from today until September 3, meeting all the Western teams and Boston. After the series with Chicago, the home nine clashes with the aggregation from St. Louis, the doughty contingent which is urging Detroit to top speed, in order to keep at the head of the procession. Hughes Jennings' band of seemingly untamable Tigers then play four games with Cantillon's hell-browns, and after a quartet of contests with the Hubbies, the Nationals will again break camp at the American League Park.

Cantillon, Capt. Ganley, and the other members of the team were as mum as the Sphinx of Egypt over the fight in which Burns' number was taken by the scraggy little left fielder. Two of the big twirlers' slats were fractured by a swat of some first-class caliber, but whether he was lambasted with a bat or just a plain everyday-day hit, none of the players would say last night. There was every indication that the lads' backs had been muzzled by the politic Joseph, who evidently believes that the melee should be packed away in moth balls and forgotten.

Jim Delehanty's suspension was not unexpected by Manager Cantillon and his players last night. It is said by those who were within hearing distance of the state James when he discharged a cargo of choice profanity in Cleveland that the empyrean blue around the infield was kept at a temperature of 45 degrees Fahrenheit for several days. Just because of his misbehavior James cannot toss pebbles in the Cleveland ball yard for a twelve-month.

Ralph Rose, of the Olympic Club of San Francisco, put the 16-pound-shot 51 feet 12 inches. Walsh slung the 56-pound weight to a height of 16 feet 3/4 inches.

LEAGUE TO BE REORGANIZED.

North Carolina Baseball Fans to See Good Ball.

Salisbury, N. C., Aug. 13.—Arrangements have been made for a reorganization of the North Carolina baseball league, whereby Salisbury is to become a member of the league and this city will be treated to some genuine ball.

High Point is also to come in with Charlotte and Salisbury, and it is the purpose of J. L. Evans, of Lynchburg, and others managing the matter to play three games each week in the various cities joining the new league, beginning in Salisbury next week. Each team has acquired some strong players from Greensboro and other teams for the remainder of the season.

RACERS GO TO BUENOS AYRES

Keene and Haggin Stocking of South America.

Young Stock to Be Auctioned Where Demand Grows on World's Greatest Turf.

New York, Aug. 13.—Regarding a story that was in circulation to-day that James R. Keene and James B. Haggin would send 100 horses to Buenos Ayres on the steamer Velasquez on August 20 for breeding purposes, and to be raced there, Mr. Keene said to-night:

"I do not know anything about Mr. Haggin's plans, but for myself I will say that I intend to ship twenty fillies, yearlings and two-year-olds to Buenos Ayres. They will be sold at auction there, and will not be raced in my interests. No race horses of known quality will be in the shipment."

"It is true that we have leased Balaio to Keene at Newmarket, England, for training quarters," Mr. Keene was asked.

"The report is absolutely without foundation," was the reply. "I do not say that I will not race some horses in England next year, but there is no truth in the report that I intend to operate a large racing stable on the other side."

As the racing game is booming at Buenos Ayres, where there is one of the finest tracks in the world, it is natural for Mr. Keene to send a bunch of well-bred fillies there to get to the highest bidder, as there is a great demand for thoroughbreds, and high prices are to be in order.

Mr. Haggin, the most extensive breeder in the country, has hundreds of stallions, mares, and yearlings at his Elmendorf stud in Kentucky, and recently it was reported that, owing to the passage of the anti-betting bill at Albany, he intended to sell out stock and barrel. In former years his sale of yearlings at Sheepshead Bay realized a large amount, but under present conditions in the turf world Mr. Haggin, it is said, would prefer to offer his yearlings in some other country. For that reason, it is believed that he will make a shipment of some sort to South America also to England and France.

St. Vincent's Forecasts a Game to the St. Paul Team.

A number of the players on St. Vincent's are also members of the Grace team, of the Sunday School League, and as that team played the Brooklands yesterday, Manager Dugan was unable to put nine eligible men on the field, thereby forfeiting to St. Paul's by 5 to 0.

St. Paul's played an exhibition game with a picked team and won easily by 14 to 2. Score:

JIM DELEHANTY SUSPENDED.

Alleged Profanity Also Bars Him from Cleveland.

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 13.—President Kilfoyle, of the Cleveland Baseball Club, received a letter to-day from the management of the Washington team, saying that Jim Delehanty had been suspended for ten days, fined $50, and barred from the Cleveland League Park for a year. Delehanty was suspended by President Ban Johnson for using profane language.
